

diplomat pr

Stockholm 29 March 2010

Swedish Diplomat PR expands in Brussels

Diplomat PR, one of the leading Swedish public affairs and public relations companies, acquires Stenström Consulting. Kajsa Stenström will become Partner and Managing Director of the Brussels office. Through this development Diplomat PR's Brussels office boosts its team with two new members. The merger takes effect immediately.

"The acquisition of Stenström Consulting contributes to our ambition of becoming a leading advisor in European public affairs for Swedish companies and organisations", says Ms Anna-Karin Hedlund, CEO at Diplomat PR.

Ms Kajsa Stenström has worked with EU matters in Brussels for 12 years. She built the EU lobbying department at the international law firm DLA Piper, before founding Stenström Consulting in 2007. Stenström Consulting offers EU lobbying and communications advice to corporate and other clients across Europe. Kajsa is a board member in the Society of European Affairs Professionals (SEAP).

"I am delighted to be joining forces with Diplomat PR – we have a high ambitious for our Brussels development. The timing is also opportune as companies and organisations are in even greater need of support in complex EU-related issues. The merger will benefit our customers and make future service offerings even more interesting", says Ms Kajsa Stenström, new Head of Diplomat PR's Brussels office.

For more information:

Anna-Karin Hedlund, CEO, (int) +46 73 9850026

Kajsa Stenström, Head of Diplomat PR Brussels, (int) +32 473 777787

Diplomat PR AB was founded in 2003 and is partner-owned. The company is one of the leading Swedish communication advisors, it works as a strategic advisor and gives operative communication support to companies and organizations. Diplomat PR has 25 staff and offices in Stockholm and Brussels. www.diplomatpr.se