

25 January 2012

New staff to Diplomat's Brussels office

Two new employees have joined Diplomat Communications' Brussels office in January; Oskar Magnusson, as Senior Assistant, and Emmelie Odberg Rosengren, as Trainee.

“Oskar and Emmelie will strengthen Diplomat's Brussels offer, and will support our existing consultants in their daily work”, said Kajsa Stenström, Partner and Managing Director of Diplomat Communications Brussels.

Oskar Magnusson joins directly from the Swedish Social Democrat group in the European Parliament. He has a Bachelor of Arts in Modern History and Politics from Royal Holloway, University of London, and Master's degree in diplomacy and conflict studies from King's College London. Oskar has also worked as Project Executive for Comment-Vision, a public affairs project directed by Euronews and the European Voice.

Emmelie Odberg Rosengren has previously worked as an intern at the European Small Business Alliance, and holds a Bachelor of Arts in European studies and Comparative Politics from the University of Bergen, and a Masters in European International Politics from Maastricht University.

Diplomat Communications is one of the leading Swedish communication advisors. The company works in strategic advice and operative efforts in Corporate Communications, Public Affairs and Financial Communication. Diplomat Communications was founded in 2003 and has 30 staff in offices in Stockholm and Brussels. The subsidiary YouMe Agency, specialized in digital PR and social media, was founded in 2010. www.diplomatcom.com